Did you know that cognitive science says that we can only articulate a small percentage of what we know? That's because we KNOW things by thinking through our toes, feeling with our hips, questioning through our hands, and moving from our hearts. We will use movement, visual arts, writing, and music to energize, inspire and connect with the wisdom that lives in your body, gut, heart and brain. For more info about Elizabeth Jacobowitz, Expressive Arts Therapist and HHP and Embodiment at Arts go to: www.embodimentarts.com/body-wisdom/ RSVP: Email Elizabeth at elizabeth@embodimentarts.com or call (619) 417-2373

COME SCRIBBLE TO YOUR HEARTS CONTENT!
We will have lots of different ways to scribble and play! Great for the whole family!

FUN! Free!

SCRIBBLE ART - A How-to Guide and Coloring Book - Ready, set, SCRIBBLE! Scribbling could be the native art form of the entire human race. As children it is our first visual language. As adults we may need to re-learn how to let go and scribble. In this playful book, author and artist Tish McAllise Sjoberg presents many of her concepts about making art. She gives us permission to scribble, express and make art with no need for talent or education. The scribble is the perfect medium for expressing emotion, relieving stress and playing, while creating art. A scribble a day can help us be happier, healthier and more creative! Next add color!
Scribble Art is available now at the studio ($10, tax included) and through Amazon ($9.84 + tax)

Schedule subject to change, call to RSVP and confirm.
